Actions to stop doing: We should stop having so many different branches on git. Besides that, the team is working effectively in respect to scrum meetings and user story tasks.

Actions to start doing: The team should start pulling from master and working on it. Then push when done with working. That way, we wouldn't have to deal with so many different branches, and merging wouldn't be a pain in the ass.

Actions to keep doing: Keep up the work ethic and continue to meet our sprint goals at the end of each sprint. Continue to communicate as a team and keep our scrum meetings concise and efficient.

Work completed/not completed: There were 4 user stories in this sprint.

- User Story 1: As a developer, I want to add a UI trending slide (3 points)
